

Where Comfort, Care, and Routine Come Together

From peaceful rest to enriching woods walks, each stay is thoughtfully designed around your pup's needs. With personalized care and a team that truly gets to know them, we create a boarding experience that feels safe, familiar, and like home.

A Calm, Consistent Daily Routine

These are key moments in your dog's day, while personalized care, supervision, and interaction are happening continuously throughout.

What's Happening Throughout the Day

Continuous supervision and hands-on care from our team

Routine tailored to each dog's energy level, personality, and comfort

Carefully matched playgroups and/or individual playtime

Regular wellness checks to monitor health, behavior, and comfort

Calm, structured transitions between activity and rest

Optional enrichment activities to support mental and physical stimulation

Thoughtful Care in Every Detail

Here's more of what sets Take Five Dogcare apart and what you can expect when your pup stays with us.
